INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Board of Directors
Dallas Mission for LIFE
d.b.a. Dallas LIFE
Dallas, Texas

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Dallas Mission for LIFE d.b.a. Dallas LIFE which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2016 and 2015, and the related statements of activities, statements of functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Board of Directors
Dallas Mission for LIFE
d.b.a. Dallas LIFE
Dallas, Texas

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Dallas Mission for LIFE d.b.a. Dallas LIFE as of December 31, 2016 and 2015, and the changes in its net assets, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

DALLAS MISSION FOR LIFE

d.b.a. DALLAS LIFE

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2016 and 2015

1. NATURE OF ORGANIZATION:

Dallas Mission for LIFE d.b.a. Dallas LIFE (the Organization), founded in 1954, is a Dallas corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code) and is not a private foundation under Section 509(a) of the Code.

The Organization was formed to serve the homeless community of Dallas and the surrounding area with a mission to be a place where homeless men, women, and children can receive help and hope during their time of need, to be a path to recovery and self-sufficient living, and to be a promise that there is a way to begin again. To fulfill this mission the Organization has different recovery programs to meet the needs of individuals, couples, teens, children, families, those with disabilities, and the elderly. Through these recovery programs the Organization provides vocational, educational, and spiritual growth opportunities, in addition to providing food, clothing, and shelter.

The Organization's facilities include housing for up to 700 men, women, and children per day, kitchen and dining area providing 3 balanced meals per day every day of the year, chapel with daily services, library, computer training center, convenience store, and medical and dental clinics where individuals receive not only treatment but are also offered wellness classes on hygiene, nutrition, infections, etc. The Organization assists with employment referrals, graduate equivalency diploma (G.E.D.) classes, counseling services, and more.

Support and revenue is primarily received from the general public, private foundations, corporations, and churches.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

The financial statements of the Organization have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting. The Organization uses estimates and assumptions in preparing financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of any contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported revenues and expenses. Actual results could vary from the estimates that were assumed in preparing the financial statements. The significant accounting policies followed are described below to enhance the usefulness of the financial statements to the reader.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash held in checking and money market accounts, and certificates of deposits with a maturity of less than 90 days. These accounts may, at times, exceed federally insured limits. The Organization has not experienced any losses on such accounts and believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash and cash equivalents.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2016 and 2015

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, continued:

GIFT-IN-KIND INVENTORY

Gift-in-kind inventory consists of donated merchandise, such as clothing, convenience store inventory, and miscellaneous items, used in the Organization's programs. All such inventory is recorded at its estimated fair value and reported at its carrying amount thereafter. During the years ended December 31, 2016 and 2015 the Organization recognized approximately $10,000 and $15,000, respectively, of other income in the statements of activities for the sale of contributed clothing that was in excess of what was needed for the Organization's internal programs.

PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Land, buildings, and equipment are stated at cost, or if donated, at fair value as of the date of the gift. Purchases or donations in excess of $5,000 are capitalized with lesser amounts expensed. All capital assets, other than land, are depreciated using the straight-line method with useful lives ranging from 3-40 years.

CLASSES OF NET ASSETS

The financial statements report amounts by class of net assets:

Unrestricted net assets are currently available for operations under the direction of the board of directors and resources invested in property and equipment.

Temporarily restricted net assets are stipulated by donors for specific operating purposes, including projects and support of ministries, or for the acquisition of property and equipment.

Permanently restricted net assets include an endowment for which the donor has stipulated that the contribution be maintained in perpetuity. Donor-imposed restrictions limiting the use of the assets or their economic benefit neither expire with the passage of time nor can be removed by satisfying a specific purpose. The donors of these assets permit the use of all or part of the income earned on related investments for specific purposes.

DALLAS MISSION FOR LIFE

d.b.a. DALLAS LIFE

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2016 and 2015

Management of the Organization has interpreted the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA) as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor restricted endowment fund absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, the Organization classifies as permanently restricted net assets (a) the original value of the gift donated to the permanent endowment, and (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment. This will then cause the permanently restricted net assets to reflect the historical cost value of the endowment. Investment gains are recorded in unrestricted net assets if there is no donor restriction on the income and in temporarily restricted net assets if the donor placed a restriction on the income. If there are capital losses on donor restricted income, those losses will go first against the temporarily restricted endowment funds and then be recorded in the unrestricted net asset category. All future gains will go first to cover these previously recorded losses before returning to the originally intended net asset category.

The endowment asset is included in cash held for endowment in the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2016 and 2015. From time to time, the fair value of assets associated with individual donor restricted endowment funds may fall below the level that the donor or UPMIFA requires the Organization to retain as a fund of perpetual duration. As of December 31, 2016 and 2015, there were no deficiencies of this nature.

The Organization has adopted investment and spending policies designed to provide a future stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of such endowment assets. Endowment assets include those assets of donor-restricted funds that the Organization must hold in perpetuity. Under this policy, the endowment assets will be invested in a manner that is intended, over the long-term, to provide sufficient growth to offset inflation. The actual return in any given year may vary from these amounts.

SUPPORT, REVENUE, AND EXPENSES

Contributions are recorded when made, which may be when cash or other assets are received or unconditionally promised. The Organization reports gifts of cash and other assets as restricted support if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is satisfied, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions. The Organization's policy is to record support and revenue restricted for specific purposes that were received and spent in the same year as unrestricted.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2016 and 2015

Dallas Life has a convenience store that has small products available for residents and employees to purchase, such as snacks, drinks, and food items. Convenience store sales are recognized when the products are sold. Intake revenue is the nominal fee that is collected when residents enter into programs. Intake revenue is recognized when the intake fee is received which is also when the resident receives the services. Other income is recognized when earned.

The Organization reports gifts of property and equipment as unrestricted support unless explicit donor stipulations specify how the donated assets must be used. Absent explicit donor stipulations about how long those long-lived assets must be maintained, the Organization reports expirations of donor restrictions when the donated or acquired long-lived assets are placed in service.

Contributed services are recorded at the fair values of the services received. The Not-for-Profit topic of the Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification requires recording the value of donated services that create or enhance nonfinancial assets or require specialized skills. The Organization benefits from the services of a substantial number of volunteers that donate their time and efforts generously. However, only the services that meet the criteria above have been recorded as gift-in-kind contributions on the statements of activities. During the years ended December 31, 2016 and 2015, the Organization received $43,630 and $55,984 respectively of contributed services from sources such as nurses and doctors in the medical and dental clinic and attorney services.

The Organization also receives a significant amount of donated clothing as discussed above under gift-in-kind inventory and donated food items. The donated food is used by the Organization to provide meals to residents and those in recovery programs. These items are valued at an estimated fair value. For the year ended December 31, 2016 and 2015, the Organization received $742,090 and $729,343, respectively of these items, which is included in gift-in-kind contributions on the statements of activities.

Expenses are reported when costs are incurred in accordance with the accrual basis of accounting.

SPECIAL EVENTS

The Organization hosted luncheons and a gala event (2015) with the proceeds going to the Organization. For the years ended December 31, 2016 and 2015, the Organization had contributions totaling $73,089 and $212,191 which was offset by the cost of the direct benefits that donors received of $51,122 and $108,024 respectively.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, continued:

ALLOCATION OF EXPENSES

The costs of providing the various program services and supporting activities have been summarized in the statements of activities. Accordingly, certain costs, such as depreciation and payroll, have been allocated among program services and supporting activities.

RECLASSIFICATIONS

Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform with current year presentation.

UNCERTAIN TAX POSITIONS

The financial statement effects of a tax position taken or expected to be taken are recognized in the financial statements when it is more likely than not, based on the technical merits, that the position will be sustained upon examination. Interest and penalties, if any, are included in general and administrative expenses in the statement of activities. As of December 31, 2016 and 2015, the Organization had no uncertain tax positions that qualify for recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.

Dallas Life files information tax returns in the United States of America (U.S.) and various states. The Organization is generally no longer subject to U.S. federal and state income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2012.
